A Complete Solutions Service Provider

Anyar, Incorporated is an established Government Solutions company headquartered in Fort Walton Beach, Florida. Our business model originally was based on Scientific Research & Development. Since 2009 we have expanded our model to include Medical & Professional Support Services. Over the last three years our company has grown in the Medical, Professional services along with Scientific R&D. Our annual revenue is projected to be nearly $8.5 Million for 2017.

The Government recognizes a need for diversity and equal opportunity for small businesses to aid in the creation of more jobs. As a Minority Woman Owned Small Business participant Anyar aims to strategically create new opportunities through out performing the competition on RFP's, RFQ, SBIR's, and delivering quality services at a mutually beneficial price. Through this approach our employees benefit working for an organization that is thoughtful, cost conscience and proactive. As a result our employees are empowered to apply their best efforts to their crafts and live in a manner that helps to stimulate the communities where we strategically establish our offices.

Core Competencies: Dedication, Commitment, and Persistence

We are Dedicated to every contract and task order. Our objective is to apply concentrated focus during each phase of service, beginning with a proactive Management team comprised of specialty departments such as business development, capture management, recruitment, credentialing, project management, and contract compliance. We believe it takes a collaborative team effort in order to achieve maximum results.

It also takes the Commitment of each department and every team member to succeed at not only meeting, but also exceeding our company goal of providing the highest level of customer service. In a customer, focused service industry – commitment is the driving force, which guides the participation of personnel towards individual task ownership.

Persistence is the pride of our company. As a team, we believe that persistence is required in order for a company to be innovative and resourceful.

Innovative Solutions

We understand the complexities and challenges the Government faces in navigating HR administrative and support services. We can provide human resource talent management solutions for your HR activities to supplement your current staffing operational needs. We assisted federal agencies with outsourcing solutions for hiring and maintaining diversified staff to carry out their mission.
